Tour Description:

This will be a slow-paced driving tour friendly for most pre-WWII cars. Friday afternoon, NOV 1, and Saturday, NOV 2, tour check-in will be at the Keystone Truck & Tractor Museum (free trailer parking on their grounds will be available). <<This is a rain or shine event with inside tour stops scheduled>>

1. We begin with a leisurely drive through old town Petersburg and the National Battlefield Park.

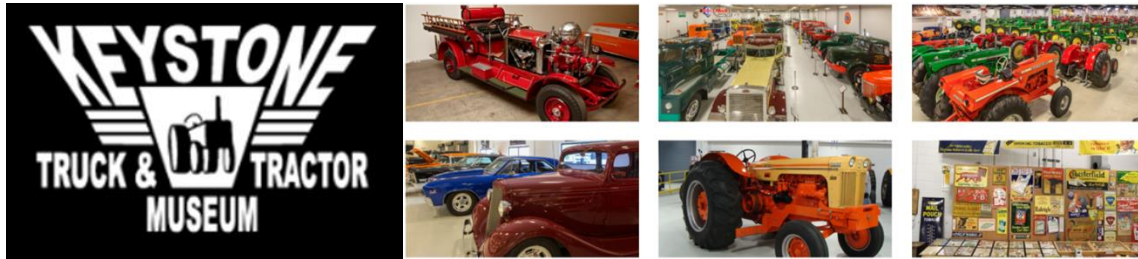

2. The first stop is at historic Blandford Cemetery for a guided tour of the amazing Tiffany stained glass windows in the restored church and when exiting the drive goes through the stone arch and passes by the burial ground of over 30,000 Confederate soldiers.

3. Next we will take our time driving through more old town Petersburg sights, followed by an early 20th century neighborhood and then onto some rural scenic back roads on our way to Pamplin Historical Park for a box lunch followed by an inside tour of their extensive interactive Civil War display.

4. From Pamplin Park we will return to the Keystone Tractor Museum for a full tour of their massive museum (recently expanded). Hint -- it contains much more than just tractors. The tour will conclude with a buffet dinner and time for socializing in the museum's restaurant.

Recommend four hotels in the Southpark Mall area less than a mile from Keystone. Rates available for AAA, military, or senior discount, etc., are found to be better than for a group rate at a host hotel. Recommend making your reservations now. If a better group rate is found we will advise ASAP so you can change your reservation.
